

Substantive Change Compliance Procedure
Supplemental to University Policy 208
Updated September 24, 2018

I. Introduction

The purpose of this procedure is to describe the process the University of North Carolina at Charlotte shall use to ensure that it identifies, manages and reports to its accrediting body, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools-Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), all substantive changes as defined in the UNC Charlotte Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Substantive Change Compliance Policy and in accordance with UNC Charlotte Policy 208, Substantive Change Compliance Policy.

II. Procedure Statement

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte will maintain compliance through collaboration across the institution and with thorough and timely reporting on areas of substantive change to SACSCOC. Responsibility for each substantive change is defined below and in the table that follows.

1. The Chancellor will sign and send to the President of the SACSCOC, as appropriate for the particular type of substantive change either:
 - a. timely notifications summarizing proposed changes, or
 - b. a timely substantive change prospectus or application.
2. The SACSCOC Accreditation Liaison, appointed by the Chancellor as required by SACSCOC, will be responsible for the following:
 - a. Ensuring that compliance with substantive change requirements is incorporated into the planning and evaluation process of the institution.
 - b. Preparing substantive change notification letters for the signature of the Chancellor in accord with the substantive change policies of the SACSCOC.
 - c. Ensuring preparation of any required substantive change prospectus or application for the signature of the Chancellor in accord with the substantive change policies of the SACSCOC.
 - d. Notifying faculty, staff and cross-functional committees regarding SACSCOC Substantive Change policies and procedures, particularly when such policies or procedures are revised by the Commission.
 - e. Maintaining a database of substantive change initiatives, action plans and status.
 - f. Informing the Senior Associate Provost of active substantive change issues.
 - g. Collaborating with the appropriate responsible administrator(s) in initiative planning and implementation for any initiative that requires substantive change notification or approval.
 - h. Serving as a contact person and communication liaison between SACSCOC staff and the institution regarding substantive change.
3. Institutional administration, including but not limited to the Chancellor, Vice Chancellors, Deans, and related unit directors will be responsible for the following:
 - a. Learning about and maintaining awareness of current Substantive Change policies.
 - b. Ensuring appropriate training for employees, committees, faculty, and all who have explicit responsibility for Substantive Change as outlined in the following table.
 - c. Initiating communication with the SACSCOC Accreditation Liaison when an initiative or curricular change is being considered that may be defined as Substantive Change.
 - d. Managing any approved initiative which requires SACSCOC substantive change notification or approval, and keeping the SACSCOC Accreditation Liaison informed of status.
